

Fostering Health Equity in our Communities

Empowerline's Aging Forum Series

Health equity means everyone has the chance to attain their full health potential and no one is disadvantaged due to social position or any other circumstance. This program will help attendees explore ways to create equity to build a better future by:

- Delving into the impact of health inequity
- Exploring challenges specific to different populations and the accumulated effects among the older population
- Examining the need for intervention and brainstorming ideas for change

Thursday, June 27 | 8:30 a.m. - 3 p.m.

About Empowerline

Finding the right support can be challenging for you and your family if you are unfamiliar with the programs designed to help older Georgians or individuals with disabilities—empowerline (formerly AgeWise Connection) is here to help.

Empowerline is a free 24/7 resource, helping people to navigate issues like housing, transportation needs, meds, resources to help care for a loved one, assistance at home, and more. We're here to connect you to resources from more than 26,000 community-based providers.

Empowerline is brought to you by the Aging and Independence Services Group of ARC, the Atlanta Regional Commission. We are the designated Area Agency on Aging for the metro Atlanta region.

Contact Empowerline

There are three ways to get in touch with empowerline to ask questions about services and resources for older adults, persons with disabilities, and their caregivers.
